

SHOPPING IN CAYMAN

JUST A FEW OF OUR FAVORITE SPOTS TO SHOP ON ISLAND.

One of the main reasons shopping in Grand Cayman is so popular is the ability to shop duty free. Goods sold to tourists in Grand Cayman are exempt from “value added” or other local taxes that would typically be paid on goods bought at home. US citizens may take home $800 worth (per person) of goods “duty free.”

We advise contacting your bank ahead of time to inform them you will be making purchases abroad and to ask about their credit card and ATM fees.

George Town Shopping

George Town, the capital of Grand Cayman, is a popular area for duty free shopping. Stores include: Cartier, Fossil, Guy Harvey, Island Companies (fine jewelry), Kirk Freeport (art, jewelry, china), Swatch and more.

Camana Bay Shopping Centre

Discover Camana Bay—a lively waterfront town where you can satisfy your foodie cravings, shop for all things local, and explore our weekly Local Harvest Market. Camana Bay has great shops, amazing food, and a movie theater making it perfect for a fun afternoon on Seven Mile Beach.

For our guests in Cayman Kai, getting to Camana Bay has never been easier. Cayman Ferries offers a ferry ride from the Kaibo marina to Camana Bay multiple times each day!

PRO TIPS:

The Cayman Islands Dollar (CI$ or KYD) is the official currency of the Cayman Islands, however U.S. dollars are readily accepted everywhere. The CI dollar is worth about US $1.23.

Many U.S. Banks also charge 1%-3% transaction fees on credit card purchases made abroad.

George Town is also the port for cruise ships and can become quite crowded on certain days. Click here for information on the number of cruise ships arriving on a given day.
